Re: Express Mail Label No. EE 897357979 US
Our File No: 2409.3273.US

Dear Joanne:

Enclosed is a photocopy of the customer copy of the above-referenced Express Mail label, which pertains to a package of documents sent to Washington, D.C. from Anchorage, Alaska.

On November 12, 1998, I was advised by the Customer Service Unit for Express Mail, accessible at (800) 222-1811, that the Express Mail Research System (hereinafter "the EMRS") reflected that the package associated with the enclosed Express Mail label was accepted by the United States Postal Service (hereinafter "the USPS") at 23:56 hours on August 25, 1998.

As discussed in my telephone conference with you on November 13, 1998, the Express Mail label bears an incorrect, hand-entered "received date" of August 26, 1998.

You have graciously agreed to assist me in documenting in writing the fact that the package associated with the enclosed Express Mail label was actually received by the USPS on August 25, 1998.

I thank you in advance for this service. Do not hesitate to call, if I can be of any further assistance.

Otherwise, I look forward in due course to your written communication transmitting and authenticating a status printout from the EMRS about the enclosed Express Mail label.
